U-2 PILOT POWERS HAS 'FINISHED HIS WORK' WITH CIA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (AP)—U-2 Pilot Francis Gary Powers, released by the Soviet Union last February, has resigned from the Central Intelligence Agency, a CIA spokesman said last night.

Powers resigned effective Oct. 6, the spokesman said. "He had finished his work with us."

Powers's U-2 reconnaissance plane crashed on a flight over Russia on May 1, 1960. He was released in an exchange for Soviet spy Rudolf Abel last Feb. 10.

The CIA said then that Powers had lived up to the terms of his $2500-a-month contract, and director John A. McCone said Powers would be retained by the intelligence agency "for an indeterminate period."

The CIA spokesman said last night he did not know Powers's whereabouts now, nor anything of his plans.
